Philippe Rogier

A workshop for singers,

Saturday 16th September 2017

Didsbury Baptist Church, School Lane/ Beaver Road, Manchester M20 6SX

TUTOR - Sally Dunkley

Described by a Spanish eulogist as 'honour, glory and light of Flanders', Philippe Rogier (c.1561-1596) was one of a number of distinguished musicians of Flemish birth who made a career in Spain, becoming assistant chapelmaster to the Spanish king in 1584 and director two years later, at the age of just 25. A collection of his motets was published in 1595, and one of Masses shortly after his untimely death the following year, but many of his works were lost in the Lisbon earthquake of 1755.

Sally Dunkley is the last remaining founder member of The Sixteen, and a regular in Philip Cave's ensemble Magnificat; she also contributed to more than 1000 concerts in 25 years with the Tallis Scholars. She has extensive experience as a musicologist and teacher.
