In nomine Domini: Early Tudor sacred Music

a workshop for singers

Saturday 22nd September

Didsbury Baptist Church, School Lane/ Beaver Road, Manchester M20 6SX

TUTOR - David Allinson

English music in the first decades of the 16th century was in a state of transition, even without the momentous upheavals of the Reformation. For this workshop day it is hoped to focus on the music of John Taverner. Proposed repertoire includes Taverner's Quemadmodum, Mater Christi, Dum transisset Sabbatum and the hypnotic section of the Missa Gloria tibi Trinitas that gave birth to the Elizabethan 'In nomine' instrumental tradition. As ever, final choices are dependent on sufficient numbers signing up; this music requires a strong Tenor section, so men are encouraged to sign up early!

Since 2013 David Allinson has been Director of Music at Canterbury Christ Church University he specialises in the history and performance of sacred choral polyphony and has directed numerous workshops in the UK and on the continent, including several for NWEMF.
