

Heinrich Schütz – Geistliche Chormusik (1648)

for singers and players

Saturday 12 November 2022

Didsbury Baptist Church, School Lane/Beaver Road, Didsbury, Manchester M20 6SX

Tutor: Roger Wilkes

Both singers (all voice parts) and instrumentalists will be very warmly welcomed to take part in this event. While provision will be made for all instrumentalists who appear, the envisaged repertory will sound especially well on loud winds (thus, cornetts and sackbuts in particular), while players of viols and recorders (favouring the larger instruments in both categories) will also be an asset.

Heinrich Schütz (1585-1672) was arguably the greatest German composer before J.S. Bach, while the Geistliche Chormusik has been described as the greatest motet collection of the 17th century. It contains 29 works, in 5, 6 and 7 parts – and we will examine and perform a varied selection of these, as time and resources allow.
